Rekindle the Wonder!

It began in an historic, haunted house with a pen and a guitar... Dubbed "the total package" by a fan, Gordon Thomas Ward is much more than your standard singer-songwriter and storyteller. His talents are in high demand and have delighted many audiences throughout the Northeast. He paints musical portraits that plumb the depths of our emotions and bring the past to life. His varied presentations travel down mystical roads, winding through lush, sonic landscapes filled with seacoasts, ghosts, history, and a diverse cast of characters. Employing his experience as an educator, author, presenter, paranormal investigator, and radio host, it's no wonder that his fans often comment on Gordon's knack for establishing an endearing relationship with them. His captivating programs, lyrics, voice, music, and extraordinary song stylings occupy a space all their own and linger in the mind and memory. At the end of Gordon's performances, audiences leave inspired!

"It was a great show.
Thanks so much!"
~ Judy Collins

Gordon's songs have led him to work with notable musicians such as Mik Kaminski (Electric Light Orchestra), Eric Troyer (ELO II, The Orchestra, John Lennon, Billy Joel), William J. Hall (Pete Seeger, Frostwater), and Carolann Solebello (Red Molly, No Fuss and Feathers). He's shared the stage with Christine Lovin and the duo Nalani & Sarina, and opened for The Boxcar Lilies and singer-songwriter/folksinger Bill Staines. Gordon's new record Providence is due to be released in early 2018.

"Our guests enjoyed an intimate House Concert on a beautiful summer day. We can't wait to have him return next year!"
~ Tami Reinhart, Owner and Host of The Blushing Rose B&B

"You brought in the largest crowd that we've ever had, and you held them to the end, a tribute to the dynamics of your presentation."
~ Karin Soderberg, Program Manager, Mystic Seaport, The Museum of America and the Sea

"His music takes people on an unforgettable journey."
~ WFMZ
